About Me

Dedicated financial professional with a proven track record of excellence in the banking and trading sectors. I bring over a decade of experience to the table, having begun my career as a Senior Analyst in the Asset Management Department at Barclays Bank, London. During my time at Barclays (2011-2016), I honed my skills in financial analysis and risk management, contributing to the growth of the bank's portfolio.

In 2016, I embraced a new challenge by joining Traders Coach as a Senior Trading Analyst, where I have continued to excel. With a focus on the Trading Department, I have leveraged my expertise to provide insights and strategies that optimize trading performance and enhance profitability. My analytical acumen and ability to thrive in dynamic trading environments have been instrumental in achieving consistent results.

I am an alumnus of The London School of Economics and Political Science, where I acquired a strong academic foundation to complement my practical experience. My professional journey is defined by a commitment to continuous growth, an analytical mindset, and an aptitude for adapting to evolving market landscapes.
